From the Pastor's Desk

Fathers have the pivotal roles in the family as leader and protector. This originated from God himself as our Heavenly Father, as it is a divine role and calling to become a father, stepfather, foster father, and grandfather, since it is an opportunity to become like God in loving and caring for their children, as God loves and cares for all of us indiscriminately. On this note, on behalf of all parishioners I wish to join the entire world in celebrating all fathers for their exceptional roles done with love, promptness, and alacrity.

Fr. Maxwell

Happy Father's Day

Please join us
after Sunday mass for a Fathers'
Day Picnic Lunch in the social hall.
